OUR OBLIGATIONS

- We will provide full board, accommodation as described for the period set out in this Brochure, unless we told you before we accepted your application that there would be changes.
- We agree to provide the activities described in this Brochure on the Cruise, unless we told you before we accepted your application that there would be changes. There is, however, no guarantee that every member on the cruise will be able to do all the activities described.
- We may cancel the Cruise if:-
 - the minimum number of members required for the Cruise to take place have not applied for a place on the Cruise 10 weeks before it is due to begin, provided that we have told you of such cancellation not less than 8 weeks before the Cruise is due to begin; or
 - unusual and unforeseen circumstances arise which are beyond our control. In the event of such cancellation, we agree to return to you the deposit and any other part of the Cruise price already paid.
- We undertake that the Leaders of the Cruise and the other voluntary workers on the Cruise will exercise reasonable care in looking after you during the Cruise.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS

- You, or your parent or guardian, agree to pay to us the balance of the price of the Cruise not less than 8 weeks before the Cruise is due to begin. Payment should be made by cheque (or other money order) made out to "C & A Dutton". The balance is made up of the total price of the Cruise stated in this brochure less the initial deposit sent with the application form. This balance shall be sent to the Leaders, unless other directions for payment are given by or on behalf of the Leaders. In the event of non-payment by the due date, we or the Leaders may cancel this Agreement forthwith.
- You may cancel your place on the Cruise by notifying the Leaders or their nominee in writing at any time before the balance of the price of the Cruise is due. In the event of such cancellation, the initial deposit will be forfeited unless we or the Leaders decide otherwise. If you wish to cancel your place on the Cruise on or after the date when the balance of the price of the Cruise is due, you and your parent or guardian will owe us 50% of full fees if less than 6 weeks notice in writing is given, and 75% of full fees if less than 3 weeks notice in writing is given. If you cancel on or after the start date of the Cruise, you will owe us the full fees.
- If prior to the commencement of the Cruise we become aware of any fact or matter that leads us to believe that your presence at the Cruise will or may be incompatible with the running of the Cruise or the well being of any other person or persons who will be present at the Cruise, we in our absolute discretion may terminate this Agreement and you will not be able to attend the Cruise. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Condition we will return to you the deposit and any other part of the Cruise price already paid.
- During the Cruise, you and your parent or guardian agree to co-operate with the Leaders and any other person having authority on the Cruise. In the event of you causing injury to any other person or damage to any property or being willfully disobedient at any time during the Cruise or if the Leaders have any reason to believe that your continued presence is or may be incompatible with the running of the Cruise or the well being of any other person or persons present on the Cruise, the Leaders (or any person having authority under them) may exercise such reasonable discipline as is considered by them to be appropriate, and/or we and/or the Leaders may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect. In the event of this Agreement being terminated under this Condition, your parent or guardian shall, on being told of the termination, at their own expense collect you from the Cruise forthwith, or make such arrangements for your collection as are necessary to remove you from the Cruise.

Please note that we use photographs taken during the Cruise in our publicity and marketing materials (which include print brochures and web sites). In accepting this contract, you agree that we may publish any photograph of you provided to us for inclusion in such materials.
