

Pure Chamber Music

Southern Sinfonia introduces you to a
Lainston experience : The Quince Quartet.
Friday 7th April 2006.

An opportunity to enjoy quality music in a sublime setting with options of drinks, canapés and dinner included.

Formed in 2003, this exciting, young, English quartet have already established an excellent international reputation. In 2004 they were awarded 'The Melba and Orville Rollefson Memorial Prize' as semi-finalists in the Banff International String Quartet Competition, and performed live on radio in the International Festival of Flanders in Belgium – to rave reviews. They performed in 2005 at Philippe Graffin's Festival in St. Nazaire, France, and have been invited back for this year's festival.
